

GEORGIA TAX INTERCEPT DISPUTE FORM

NOTICE: you are contacting a clearinghouse that has no authority to make determinations regarding the judgment, the debt or your claim. Your request to dispute the intercept will be forwarded to the court claiming the outstanding debt, and you will be contacted by that court. It is your obligation to demonstrate that your return should not have been intercepted. You will have the right to a hearing before an impartial hearing officer should you be unable to resolve the matter directly with the court.
